Hello! Here's the latest news from the Illustrious Company...

BP DCT Helios Awards, Thursday 20th October 2005

Illustrious has successfully created a series of bespoke compositions for the BP DCT Helios Awards, embodying six of their core brand values - Human Energy, Innovation, Partnership, Green, Performance and Progressive. The resulting suite of works constitutes an expanded version of Sonic-ID.

Amnesty International Presents
Imagine A World ...
Without Violence Against Women
25th November - 11th December 2005
Barge House, Oxo Tower Wharf, Admission Free

An exhibition of work as part of Amnesty International's Stop Violence Against Women campaign - confronting violence against women through three-dimensional sound, humour, intelligence, life-size glove puppets and fake fur!

Illustrious is composing a three-dimensional soundscape based upon the ancient Shinto ritual of the wishing tree. In this case the public are invited to call a Amnesty telephone number to leave their 'imaginings' of a world without violence against women, which will then be incorporated into the work.

Please participate - the number is 020 7033 1599

Every Time I See The Sea
9th December 2005 - 3rd January 2006
Admission Free, Dray Walk Gallery, Brick Lane

'Every time I see the sea...' blends art with images and voices and facts to distil the essential truths as seen by Christian Aid and its partners, who have been working tirelessly with the affected millions from the moment the disaster struck.

Illustrious is composing a three-dimensional soundscape to accompany this multimedia exhibition.

Future Of Sound Tour 2006

The Arts Council has kindly agreed to help fund a national tour of Future Of Sound. Dates will be announced in the New Year and the tour will visit all regions of England.

And finally ...

Heaven 17 will be headlining a brand new show at The Scala, Kings Cross, featuring support act, Modified Toy Orchestra. This is H17's first full length show for 8 years to promote their newly released album, Before After.
