VERSE 2: Dinner parties followed
 And all my age implies
 My friends began to talk
 I began to realise
 If half the things they say
 Are quarter true of me
 Then how can I eclipse the youth
 You gave to set me free.

F G B

There was some - thing in — your smile that was hard to re - con - cile, — the time had come to test - if - y _ to rea - son though years will not e - rase _ re - mem - brance of those days at least there's no sub - mis - sion to heart's trea - son. _ _ _

CHORUS: Here today my tomorrow
 No more shame only sorrow
 All that kissing
 There's something missing
 Come live with me
 Kiss the boys goodbye.

VERSE 3: Now there's nothing left to cry for
 And there's nowhere left to go
 Just another hopeless fight
 But how were we to know
 The strong are sometimes wrong
 But the weak are never free
 The choice we made we can't evade
 Don't try to follow me.

CHORUS: Here today my tomorrow
 No more pain only sorrow
 All that kissing
 There's something missing
 Come live with me
 Kiss the boys goodbye
 Come live with me
 Kiss the boys goodbye.
